Dear Mr. McPherson,

We are writing this letter on behalf of a large group of internet fans regarding your program, Women's Murder Club. It is our wish that ABC reconsider their decision to cancel this show. We feel that it is an excellent program featuring strong female characters, a good supporting cast, and interesting scripts.

As you can see by the volume of letters you've been receiving, the audience for this program covers a wide range of ages, cultures and regions of the globe. Fans are not limited to either gender; this show has found an audience that includes both men and women. I am sure you have noticed the Hershey's Kisses that have been forwarded to you regarding the 'Kiss-Me-Not Killer' story line, which our group of fans find very compelling.

This letter is to convey the important fact that the fans are out here. We purchase products and services from your advertisers, and we are so much more than the simple demographic figure generally stated regarding the male 18-34 group.

We feel that Women's Murder Club has the potential to generate good ratings if given the chance, and we are extremely hopeful that you will reconsider your decision to cancel this show. Women need to see the kind of representation that can be provided by showing intelligent women working together successfully. In this regard, this show has the ability to empower women of all ages and is a worthy endeavour.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
